- (b) upon receipt of the notice by the person covered or any person entitled through him, the group takaful participant may notify the licensed takaful operator of any indebtedness due and owing by the person covered to the group takaful participant;
- (c) if the licensed takaful operator agrees to pay the moneys due under the takaful certificate or is required to pay such moneys by a court of law or dispute resolution body, the licensed takaful operator shall deduct moneys due and owing under subsubparagraph (b) to the group takaful participant and pay any balance directly to the person covered or any person entitled through him; and

- (d) for purposes of subsubparagraphs (a), (b) and (c), any person entitled through the person covered shall include a trustee, assignee, nominee or lawful executor or administrator, as the case may be.

Refund of takaful contribution

12. A licensed general takaful operator shall pay directly to a takaful participant any refund of takaful contribution in relation to a takaful certificate which may become due to the takaful participant for any reason including the cancellation of the takaful certificate or alteration in its terms and conditions and such refund shall under no circumstances be paid or credited to any takaful agent.

PART 1

Preliminary

Application of Schedule and other laws

1. (1) This Schedule shall not affect a contract of takaful entered into, varied or renewed before the date on which section 141 and this Schedule come into operation.

(2) Where there is a conflict or inconsistency between a provision of this Schedule and the Contracts Act 1950 [Act 136], the provision of this Schedule shall prevail.

(3) Notwithstanding any other written law, the provisions of this Schedule shall apply to determine whether a licensed takaful operator may avoid a contract of takaful and in particular a contract covering third party risks in respect of death or bodily injury to any person caused by or arising out of the use of a motor vehicle or land implement drawn on a road, for misrepresentation.

Interpretation

2. In this Schedule—

“consumer” means the individual who enters into, varies or renews a consumer takaful contract, or proposes to do so with a licensed takaful operator;

“consumer takaful contract” means a contract of takaful entered into, varied or renewed by an individual wholly for purposes unrelated to the individual’s trade, business or profession.

Contracting out

3. (1) A term of a consumer takaful contract, or of any other contract, is rendered void to the extent that it would put the consumer in a worse position in respect of the matters mentioned in subparagraph (2) than he would be in by virtue of the provisions of this Schedule.

(2) The matters referred to in subparagraph (1) are—

- (a) disclosure and representations by the consumer to the licensed takaful operator before the contract is entered into, varied or renewed; and
- (b) the non-contestability of contracts of family takaful and any of the remedies for consumer takaful contracts provided in Part 3 of this Schedule.

(3) This paragraph does not apply in relation to a contract for the settlement of a claim arising under a consumer takaful contract.

PART 2

Pre-contractual disclosure and representations

Pre-contractual duty of disclosure for takaful contracts other than consumer takaful contracts

4. (1) Before a contract of takaful other than a consumer takaful contract is entered into, varied or renewed, a proposer shall disclose to the licensed takaful operator a matter that—

- (a) he knows to be relevant to the decision of the licensed takaful operator on whether to accept the risk or not and the rates and terms to be applied;
- or

- (b) a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be relevant.
- (2) The duty of disclosure shall not require the disclosure of a matter that—
- (a) diminishes the risk to the licensed takaful operator;
 - (b) is of common knowledge;
 - (c) the licensed takaful operator knows or in the ordinary course of his business ought to know; or
 - (d) in respect of which the licensed takaful operator has waived any requirement for disclosure.

(3) Where a proposer fails to answer or gives an incomplete or irrelevant answer to a question contained in the proposal form or asked by the licensed takaful operator and the matter was not pursued further by the licensed takaful operator, compliance with the proposer's duty of disclosure in respect of the matter shall be deemed to have been waived by the licensed takaful operator.

(4) A licensed takaful operator shall, before a contract of takaful is entered into, varied or renewed, clearly inform a proposer in writing of the proposer's pre-contractual duty of disclosure under this paragraph, and that this duty of disclosure shall continue until the time the contract is entered into, varied or renewed.

Pre-contractual duty of disclosure for consumer takaful contracts

5. (1) Before a consumer takaful contract is entered into or varied, a licensed takaful operator may request a proposer who is a consumer to answer any specific questions that are relevant to the decision of the licensed takaful operator whether to accept the risk or not and the rates and terms to be applied.

(2) It is the duty of the consumer to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the licensed takaful operator when answering any questions under subparagraph (1).

(3) Before a consumer takaful contract is renewed, a licensed takaful operator may either—

- (a) request a consumer to answer one or more specific questions in accordance with subparagraph (1); or
- (b) give the consumer a copy of any matter previously disclosed by the consumer in relation to the contract and request the consumer to confirm or amend any change to that matter.

(4) It is the duty of the consumer to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the licensed takaful operator when answering any questions under subsubparagraph (3)(a), or confirming or amending any matter under subsubparagraph (3)(b).

(5) If the licensed takaful operator does not make a request in accordance with subparagraph (1) or (3) as the case may be, compliance with the consumer's duty of disclosure in respect of those subparagraphs, shall be deemed to have been waived by the licensed takaful operator.

(6) Where the consumer fails to answer or gives an incomplete or irrelevant answer to any request by the licensed takaful operator under subparagraph (1) or subsubparagraph (3)(a), or fails to confirm or amend any matter under subsubparagraph (3)(b), or does so incompletely or provides irrelevant information, as the case may be, and the answer or matter was not pursued further by the licensed takaful operator, compliance with the consumer's duty of disclosure in respect of the answer or matter shall be deemed to have been waived by the licensed takaful operator.

(7) A licensed takaful operator shall, before a consumer takaful contract is entered into, varied or renewed, clearly inform the consumer in writing of the consumer's pre-contractual duty of disclosure under this paragraph, and that this duty of disclosure shall continue until the time the contract is entered into, varied or renewed.

(8) Subject to subparagraphs (1) and (3), a consumer shall take reasonable care to disclose to the licensed takaful operator any matter, other than that in relation to subparagraph (1) or (3), that he knows to be relevant to the decision of the licensed takaful operator on whether to accept the risk or not and the rates and terms to be applied.

(9) Nothing in this Schedule shall affect the duty of utmost good faith to be exercised by a consumer and licensed takaful operator in their dealings with each other, including the making and paying of a claim, after a contract of takaful has been entered into, varied or renewed.

Duty to take reasonable care

6. (1) In determining whether a consumer has taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation under subparagraph 5(2) or (4), the relevant circumstances may be taken into account including—

- (a) the consumer takaful contract in question and the manner in which the contract was marketed to the consumer;
- (b) any relevant explanatory material or publicity produced or authorized by the licensed takaful operator; and
- (c) how clear and specific, the licensed takaful operator's questions were.

(2) Subject to subparagraph (3), the standard of care required of the consumer under subparagraphs 5(2) and (4) shall be what a reasonable consumer in the circumstances would have known.

(3) If the licensed takaful operator was, or ought to have been, aware of any particular characteristics or circumstances of the consumer, the licensed takaful operator shall take into account such characteristics or circumstances.

Misrepresentation in respect of takaful contracts

7. (1) Part 3 of this Schedule—

- (a) in Division 1, makes provision for a misrepresentation made in relation to a contract of family takaful, whether or not a consumer takaful contract, which has been effected for a period of more than two years; and
- (b) in Division 2, sets out the remedies available to a licensed takaful operator for a misrepresentation made in respect of—
 - (i) a consumer takaful contract of family takaful which has been effected for a period of two years or less; and
 - (ii) a consumer takaful contract of general takaful.

(2) The remedies set out in Division 2 shall be available to a licensed takaful operator for a misrepresentation made by a consumer before a consumer takaful contract referred to in subparagraph (1)(b) was entered into, varied or renewed if—

- (a) the consumer has made a misrepresentation in breach of his duty under subparagraph 5(2) or (4); and
- (b) the licensed takaful operator shows that had it known the true facts, it would not have entered into the contract, or agreed to the variation or renewal, or would only have done so on different terms.

(3) For the purposes of this Schedule, a misrepresentation for which a licensed takaful operator has a remedy in Division 2 against a consumer may be classified as—

- (a) deliberate or reckless;
- (b) careless; or
- (c) innocent.

(4) A misrepresentation is deliberate or reckless if the consumer knew that—

- (a) it was untrue or misleading, or did not care whether or not it was untrue or misleading; and
- (b) the matter to which the misrepresentation related was relevant to the licensed takaful operator, or did not care whether or not it was relevant to the licensed takaful operator.

(5) A misrepresentation made dishonestly is to be regarded as having been made deliberately or recklessly.

(6) A misrepresentation is careless or innocent, as the case may be, if it is not deliberate or reckless.

(7) It is for the licensed takaful operator to show that a misrepresentation was deliberate or reckless on a balance of probability.

(8) Unless the contrary is shown, it is to be presumed that the consumer knew that a matter about which the licensed takaful operator asked a clear and specific question was relevant to the licensed takaful operator.

Group takaful certificates

8. (1) This paragraph shall apply to a group takaful certificate which so far as the cover for a person covered under that group takaful certificate is concerned, such takaful certificate, if entered into, varied or renewed by the person covered instead of the group takaful participant, would have been a consumer takaful contract referred to in subsubparagraph 7(1)(b).

(2) So far as the cover for a person covered referred to in subparagraph (1) is concerned—

- (a) paragraph 5 shall apply in relation to any disclosure, answer or representation made by the person covered to the licensed takaful operator as if the person covered was proposing to enter into, vary or renew a consumer takaful contract for the relevant cover with the licensed takaful operator; and
- (b) subject to subparagraphs (3) and (4) and the modifications set out in Division 3 of Part 3 of this Schedule to the licensed takaful operator's remedies in Division 2 of Part 3 of this Schedule, the remaining provisions of this Schedule shall apply in relation to the cover for the person covered as if the person covered had entered into, varied or renewed a consumer takaful contract for that cover with the licensed takaful operator.

(3) Subsubparagraph 7(2)(b) shall apply to a group takaful certificate as if it reads as follows:

“the licensed takaful operator shows that had it known the true facts, it would not have provided cover for the person covered, agreed to the variation or renewal or would only have done so on different terms.”.

(4) A breach of the duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation under paragraph 5 on the part of one of any of the persons whose life is covered under a group takaful certificate shall not affect the takaful certificate so far as it relates to the other persons whose life are covered under that takaful certificate.

(5) Nothing in this paragraph shall affect any duty owed by the group takaful participant to the licensed takaful operator, or any remedy which the licensed takaful operator may have against the group takaful participant for breach of such a duty.

Entering into contract of takaful on another person whose life is covered

9. Where a consumer enters into a consumer takaful contract on another person whose life is covered who is not a party to the contract, any information provided to the licensed takaful operator by the person whose life is covered, whether requested or otherwise, is to be treated for purposes of this Schedule as if it was provided by the consumer and shall be subject to paragraph 5.

Warranties and representations

10. Any representation made before a consumer takaful contract was entered into, varied or renewed shall not be converted into a warranty by means of any provision of the consumer takaful contract or of any terms of the variation or of any other contract, whether by declaring the representation to form the basis of the contract or otherwise.

Takaful operator’s, etc. pre-contractual duty of disclosure

11. (1) No licensed takaful operator, takaful agent, approved takaful broker, approved Islamic financial adviser or Islamic financial adviser’s representative in order to induce a person to enter into, vary or renew, or offer to enter into, vary or renew, a contract of takaful, whether or not a consumer takaful contract, with it or through him—

- (a) shall make a statement which is misleading, false or deceptive, whether fraudulently or otherwise;
- (b) shall fraudulently conceal a material fact; or
- (c) in the case of a takaful agent, use any marketing brochure or product illustration not authorized by the licensed takaful operator.

(2) Where a person is induced to enter into, vary or renew a contract of takaful in a manner described in subparagraph (1), the contract of takaful shall be voidable and the person shall be entitled to rescind it.

Knowledge of, and statement by takaful agent

12. (1) A person who is authorized by a licensed takaful operator to be its takaful agent and who solicits or negotiates a contract of takaful in that capacity shall be deemed, for the purpose of the formation or variation of the contract of takaful, to be the agent of the licensed takaful operator and the knowledge of that takaful agent shall be deemed to be the knowledge of the licensed takaful operator.

(2) A statement made, or an act done, by the takaful agent shall be deemed, for the purpose of the formation or variation of the contract of takaful, to be a statement made, or act done, by the licensed takaful operator notwithstanding the takaful agent's contravention of subparagraph 11(1) or any other provision of this Act.

(3) Subparagraph (1) shall not apply—

- (a) where there is collusion or connivance between the takaful agent and the proposer in the formation or variation of the contract of takaful; or
- (b) where a person has ceased to be a takaful agent of a licensed takaful operator and the licensed takaful operator has taken all reasonable steps to inform, or bring to the knowledge of takaful participants of the fact of such cessation.

PART 3

Non-contestability and remedies for misrepresentations

Division 1

Non-contestability

Non-contestability for family takaful contracts

13. (1) This paragraph shall apply to contracts of family takaful, whether or not consumer takaful contracts.

(2) Where a contract of family takaful has been in effect for a period of more than two years during the lifetime of the person whose life is covered, such a contract shall not be avoided by a licensed family takaful operator on the ground that a statement made or omitted to be made in the proposal for takaful or in a report of a doctor, referee, or any other person, or in a document leading to the issue of the family takaful certificate, was inaccurate or false or misleading unless the licensed family takaful operator shows that the statement was on a material matter or suppressed a material fact and that it was fraudulently made or omitted to be made by the takaful participant or the person whose life is covered.

(3) Where a licensed family takaful operator avoids a contract of takaful under subparagraph (2), the licensed family takaful operator shall return such moneys due under such contract of takaful as may be specified by the Bank.

(4) For the purposes of subparagraph (2), “material matter” or “material fact” means a matter or fact which, if known by the licensed family takaful operator, would have led to its refusal to issue a family takaful certificate to the takaful participant or would have led it to impose terms less favourable to the takaful participant than those imposed in the family takaful certificate.

Division 2

Remedies for misrepresentation

Application of Division

14. This Division sets out the remedies available to a licensed takaful operator for a misrepresentation by a consumer made in respect of—

- (a) a consumer takaful contract of family takaful which has been effected for a period of two years or less; and
- (b) a consumer takaful contract of general takaful.

Remedies for deliberate or reckless misrepresentation

15. (1) If a misrepresentation was deliberate or reckless, a licensed takaful operator may avoid the consumer takaful contract and refuse all claims.

(2) Where the licensed takaful operator avoids a contract under subparagraph (1), the licensed takaful operator shall return such moneys due under such contract as may be specified by the Bank.

Remedies for careless or innocent misrepresentation

16. (1) If a misrepresentation was careless or innocent, the licensed takaful operator’s remedies shall be based on what it would have done if the consumer had complied with the duty set out in paragraph 5 and subparagraphs (2) to (4) are to be read accordingly.

(2) If the licensed takaful operator would not have entered into or renewed the consumer takaful contract on any terms, the licensed takaful operator may avoid the contract and refuse all claims, but shall return to the consumer such moneys due under such contract as may be specified by the Bank.

(3) If the licensed takaful operator would have entered into, or renewed the consumer takaful contract, but on different terms excluding terms relating to the takaful contributions, the contract is to be treated as if it had been entered into or renewed on those different terms if the licensed takaful operator so requires.

(4) In addition, if the licensed takaful operator would have entered into or renewed the consumer takaful contract, whether the terms relating to matters other than the takaful contributions would have been the same or different, but would have charged a higher takaful contribution, the licensed takaful operator may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim as may be specified by the Bank.

Future treatment of contract

17. (1) This paragraph shall apply if a misrepresentation was careless or innocent but does not relate to any outstanding claim.

(2) Where a licensed takaful operator discovers a misrepresentation that was careless or innocent and if the licensed takaful operator would not have entered into or renewed the consumer takaful contract on any terms, subparagraph 16(2) will apply.

(3) If the licensed takaful operator would have entered into or renewed the consumer takaful contract, but on different terms or for a higher takaful contribution or both, the licensed takaful operator shall either notify the consumer that it intends to treat the contract as subsisting on different terms or it may terminate the contract by giving reasonable notice to the consumer.

(4) Where the consumer receives notice that the licensed takaful operator intends to continue the consumer takaful contract on different terms, the consumer has a choice of either continuing the contract on those amended terms or terminating the contract by giving reasonable notice to the licensed takaful operator.

(5) Where either the licensed takaful operator or the consumer terminates the contract under this paragraph, the licensed takaful operator shall refund such moneys due under such contract as may be specified by the Bank.

(6) Termination of a consumer takaful contract under this paragraph does not affect the treatment of any claim arising under the contract in the period before termination and any such claim arising shall be dealt with accordingly under paragraph 16.

(7) Nothing in this paragraph shall affect any contractual right of the parties to terminate the consumer takaful contract.

Variations

18. (1) Where a misrepresentation is made by a consumer in respect of a variation to an existing consumer takaful contract, it is necessary to ascertain whether the subject matter of the variation can reasonably be treated separately from the subject matter of the rest of the contract.

(2) If the subject matter of the variation can reasonably be treated separately from the subject matter of the rest of the consumer takaful contract, the remedies set out in this Division shall apply only in relation to that variation as it applies in relation to a contract.

(3) If the subject matter of the variation cannot be treated separately from the subject matter of the rest of the consumer takaful contract, the misrepresentation shall be treated as if it had been made in relation to the whole contract and the remedies set out in this Division shall apply in relation to the whole of the contract of takaful rather than merely in relation to the variation.

Division 3

Modifications for group takaful certificates

Modifications for group takaful certificates

19. This Division provides for the application of Division 2 of this Part to a group takaful certificate in accordance with the following modifications:

- (a) reference to consumer takaful contract, however described in Division 2, shall be references to that part of the group takaful certificate which provides for cover for the person covered who made the misrepresentation;
- (b) reference to claims and takaful contribution shall be references to claims and takaful contribution in relation to the cover for the person covered who made the misrepresentation;
- (c) any refund of takaful contribution under subparagraph 16(2) or 17(5) shall be made to the person covered if he had paid the takaful contribution for his cover; and
- (d) in respect of the cover for the person covered, the right to terminate his cover wherever referred to in Division 2, shall be that of the group takaful participant.

Power to make nomination

2. (1) A takaful participant who has attained the age of sixteen years may nominate an individual to receive takaful benefits payable upon his death under the takaful certificate, either as an executor, or as a beneficiary under a conditional hibah by notifying the licensed takaful operator in writing the name, date of birth, national registration identity card number or birth certificate number and address of the nominee.

(2) A nomination under subparagraph (1) may be made—

(a) at the time the takaful certificate is issued; or

- (b) if the takaful certificate has already been issued, by notifying the licensed takaful operator in writing or by submitting the takaful certificate for an endorsement of the nomination by the licensed takaful operator.

(3) A nomination made under subparagraph (1) shall be witnessed by a person of sound mind who has attained the age of eighteen years and who is not a nominee named under that subparagraph.

(4) The licensed takaful operator—

- (a) shall prominently display in the nomination form that the takaful participant may—

- (i) assign the takaful benefits to a nominee or designate the nominee to receive the takaful benefits as a beneficiary under conditional hibah; or
- (ii) designate the nominee to receive the takaful benefits as an executor;

- (b) shall record the nomination and the particulars of the nominee in its register of takaful certificates; and

- (c) shall return the takaful certificate to the takaful participant after endorsing the nomination on the takaful certificate or by issuing an endorsement to the original takaful certificate by registered mail to the takaful participant and the nomination shall take effect from the date the nomination is registered by the licensed takaful operator.

(5) A failure to comply with subparagraph (4) shall not affect the validity of the nomination if it is otherwise proved that the nomination was made by the takaful participant and given to the licensed takaful operator.

(6) A nomination made under subparagraph (1) may be in favour of one person or several persons and where there is more than one nominee, the takaful participant may direct that specified shares be paid to the nominees and in the absence of such direction by the takaful participant, the licensed takaful operator shall pay the nominees in equal shares.

Effect of nomination

3. (1) A nominee under subparagraph 2(1) shall receive the takaful benefits payable under a takaful certificate either as an executor or as a beneficiary under a conditional hibah, as the case may be, as stated in the nomination form by the takaful participant.

(2) A nomination by a takaful participant pursuant to subparagraph 2(1) for a nominee to be a beneficiary under a conditional hibah, shall, notwithstanding any written law, have the effect of transferring ownership, and shall transfer ownership, of the takaful benefits payable to the nominee upon the death of the takaful participant and such takaful benefits so transferred shall not form part of the estate of the deceased takaful participant or be subject to his debts.

(3) Where the takaful benefits are paid under a conditional hibah, if it is proved that the takaful certificate was effected and the takaful contributions were paid with intent to defraud a creditor of the takaful participant, the creditor shall be entitled to receive from the takaful benefits payable under the takaful certificate a sum equal to the takaful contributions paid under that takaful certificate.

(4) Notwithstanding subparagraph (3), if a beneficiary received the takaful benefits in good faith, and such benefits have been utilised by the beneficiary, the creditor shall receive a sum equal to the unutilised benefits if such unutilised benefits are less than the takaful contributions paid.

Revocation of nomination

4. (1) A nomination shall be revoked—

- (a) upon the death of the nominee, or where there is more than one nominee, upon the death of all the nominees, during the lifetime of the takaful participant;
- (b) by a notice in writing given by the takaful participant to the licensed takaful operator; or
- (c) by any subsequent nomination.

(2) Subject to subparagraph (1), a nomination shall not be revoked by a will or by any other act, event or means.

(3) Where there is more than one nominee and any particular nominee who is nominated as a beneficiary under conditional hibah predeceases the takaful participant, the licensed takaful operator shall pay the share of the deceased nominee, upon the death of the takaful participant to the estate of the deceased takaful participant unless the takaful participant has made a subsequent nomination in place of the deceased nominee.

Payment of takaful benefits where there is nomination

5. (1) Subject to subparagraph (2), where a takaful participant dies having made a nomination, the licensed takaful operator shall pay the takaful benefits according to the direction of the nomination upon receipt of a claim by the nominee together with proof of death of the takaful participant.

(2) Where a nominee fails to claim the takaful benefits within sixty days of the licensed takaful operator becoming aware of the death of the takaful participant, the licensed takaful operator shall immediately notify the nominee in writing at his last known address of his entitlement to claim the takaful benefits.

(3) Where a nominee fails to claim the takaful benefits within twelve months of the licensed takaful operator becoming aware of the death of the takaful participant despite notification under subparagraph (2)—

- (a) in the case of a nominee who is nominated as an executor, paragraph 8 shall apply as though no nomination was made; or
- (b) in the case of a nominee who is nominated as a beneficiary under conditional hibah, the takaful benefits payable to such nominee shall be lodged with the Registrar of Unclaimed Moneys in accordance with the provisions of the Unclaimed Moneys Act 1965 [Act 370].

(4) Where a nominee dies after the death of the takaful participant but before any takaful benefits has been paid to him as nominee, the licensed takaful operator shall pay the takaful benefits to—

- (a) the estate of the deceased takaful participant if the nominee is an executor; or
- (b) the estate of the deceased nominee if the nominee is a beneficiary under conditional hibah.

Nominee who receives takaful benefits

6. (1) A licensed takaful operator shall be discharged from liability for payments of takaful benefits payable under a takaful certificate if the licensed takaful operator pays the takaful benefits to the nominee named in the takaful certificate whether that nominee receives the takaful benefits as an executor or as a beneficiary under conditional hibah.

(2) For purposes of subparagraph (1) where a nominee of a takaful participant receives the takaful benefits as an executor, such nominee shall distribute the takaful benefits in due course of administration of the estate of the deceased takaful participant in accordance with the will of that takaful participant or the law relating to the distribution of the estate of deceased persons as applicable to that takaful participant.

Assigned or pledged takaful benefits

7. (1) Notwithstanding a nomination under paragraph 2, where the takaful benefits, wholly or partly, have been pledged as security or assigned to a person, the claim of the person entitled under the security or the assignee shall have priority over the claim of the nominee and subject to the rights under the security or the assignment being preserved, the licensed takaful operator shall pay the balance of the takaful benefits to the nominee.

(2) Where more than one person is entitled under the security or the assignment, the respective rights of the persons entitled under the security or the assignment shall be in the order of priority according to the priority of the date on which written notification of the security or the assignment was given to the licensed takaful operator, both security and assignment being treated as one class for this purpose.

Payment of takaful benefits where there is no nomination

8. (1) Where a takaful participant dies without having made a nomination relating to takaful benefits under a takaful certificate, the licensed takaful operator shall subject to paragraph 7, pay the takaful benefits of the deceased takaful participant to the lawful executor or administrator of his estate.

(2) Where the licensed takaful operator is satisfied that there is no lawful executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased takaful participant at the time of payment of takaful benefits, the licensed takaful operator may pay the takaful benefits to a proper claimant without requiring the grant of probate or letters of administration or a distribution order—

- (a) where the takaful benefits do not exceed one hundred thousand ringgit or such greater amount as may be prescribed by the Bank, all such takaful benefits; or
- (b) where the takaful benefits exceed one hundred thousand ringgit, or such greater amount as may be prescribed by the Bank, an amount not greater than one hundred thousand ringgit or such greater amount as may be prescribed by the Bank.

(3) The licensed takaful operator shall pay the balance of the takaful benefits under subparagraph (2)(b) to the lawful executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased takaful participant.

(4) In this paragraph, a reference to takaful benefits is a reference to the aggregate amount of takaful benefits in respect of all takaful certificates of the takaful participant with that licensed takaful operator where the takaful participant has not made any nomination.

(5) The grant of probate or letters of administration or distribution order in respect of a personal estate comprising takaful benefits, by a court in Malaysia or a competent authority outside Malaysia, or its court certified copy shall be sufficient proof to the licensed takaful operator to pay the takaful benefits to the person named therein as the lawful executor or administrator provided that the same has been duly registered with the court in Malaysia and sealed in accordance with the Probate and Administration Act 1959 [Act 97].

(6) Takaful benefits paid under this paragraph shall be deemed to have been duly paid and the licensed takaful operator shall be discharged from liability in respect of the takaful benefits so paid notwithstanding the absence or invalidity of, or any defect in the grant of probate or letters of administration or distribution order or any other document having the same effect.

(7) A person to whom a payment is made under this paragraph shall give a receipt which shall be deemed to be a valid receipt.

Payment to person incompetent to contract
