PART A: DEALINGS IN CURRENCY BY RESIDENT

Buying and Selling of Foreign Currency Against Ringgit

1. (1) A Resident is allowed to buy or sell Foreign Currency against Ringgit for its own account—

- (a) on Spot Basis with a LOB; or
- (b) on Forward Basis with a LOB, subject to the following:
 - (i) the transaction is undertaken on Firm Commitment or Anticipatory basis, and shall be terminated when the Firm Commitment ceases to exist or the anticipated transaction does not materialise; and
 - (ii) where the transaction involves—
 - (A) underlying Foreign Currency-denominated derivatives contract (excluding Exchange Rate Derivatives) offered by a Resident, the value of the transaction shall not exceed the net open position of the Foreign Currency exposure arising from the derivatives contract;
 - (B) buying of Foreign Currency against Ringgit, it shall not be for deposit into FCA except for temporary placement arising from delivery of Foreign Currency under the Forward Basis transaction due to extension of payment timeline of the Foreign Currency Firm Commitment or temporarily placed into the FCA for subsequent payment out on the same day; or
 - (C) selling of Foreign Currency against Ringgit, the Foreign Currency shall not be sourced from FCA except for Foreign Currency proceeds received earlier than the maturity date of the Forward Basis transaction¹.

¹ Illustration: On 1 June 2020, a Resident enters into a Forward Basis transaction for underlying receipt of proceeds of Export of Goods (i.e. sell Foreign Currency against Ringgit) for delivery on 30 June 2020. However, the proceeds of Export of Goods were received earlier than anticipated

(2) A Resident is allowed to unwind the Forward Basis transaction undertaken in accordance with paragraph 1(1)(b) with any LOB except for a transaction where the Firm Commitment is a Portfolio Investment.

2. (1) A Resident Institutional Investor registered with the Bank under the Dynamic Hedging Framework for Institutional Investors is allowed to enter into a plain vanilla forward contract for its own account with a LOB to sell Foreign Currency against Ringgit without documentary evidence for the purpose of managing the Resident Institutional Investor's Foreign Currency exposure up to 100% of the Resident Institutional Investor's aggregate—

- (a) investment in Foreign Currency-denominated debt securities, equity securities, Islamic debt securities and Islamic equity securities; and
- (b) Foreign Currency deposits or deposit-like instruments arising from disposal of existing Foreign Currency-denominated securities referred to in paragraph 2(1)(a) on temporary basis for up to three (3) months pending reinvestment of such deposits.

The procedures for this paragraph are in the Appendix.

(2) The Resident Institutional Investor is allowed to unwind the plain vanilla forward contract undertaken in accordance with paragraph 2(1) with any LOB.

3. A Resident Entity is allowed to buy or sell Foreign Currency against Ringgit on behalf of an Entity within its Group ("the Principal") with a LOB, provided that—

- (a) the Principal is not a Financial Institution or NRFI;
- (b) where the Principal is a Resident, the Principal complies with paragraphs 1 and 2²; and
- (c) where the Principal is a Non-Resident, the Principal complies with paragraphs 6 and 7³.

i.e. prior to the maturity of the Forward Basis transaction and credited into Trade FCA. The Resident has the options to either (1) take an early delivery of the Forward Basis transaction or (2) wait until the maturity of the Forward Basis transaction by debiting Foreign Currency from the Resident's Trade FCA maintained with a LOB.

² A transaction that is undertaken pursuant to the Dynamic Hedging Framework for Institutional Investors requires registration with the Bank either by the Resident Entity or the Principal.

³ Refer to footnote 2.

4. A Resident Intermediary acting on behalf of a Resident or Non-Resident client is allowed to buy or sell Foreign Currency against Ringgit with a LOB for settlement of a Ringgit Asset or Foreign Currency Asset, provided that—

- (a) where the client is a Resident, the transaction complies with paragraph 1; and
- (b) where the client is a Non-Resident, the transaction complies with paragraph 6.
